

SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA
CIRCULAR TO PRACTITIONERS

No. 20 of 2021

6 December 2021

ASSOCIATE JUDGE'S SITTING SCHEDULE 2022

Commencing at the start of the 2022 legal year, the Associate Judge will be varying his sittings as follows:

- the Hobart miscellaneous civil lists will be conducted on Wednesdays rather than on Tuesdays. The 9.30am timeslot will no longer be used. The lists will be at 11am 12 midday and 2.15pm.
- the first return dates for Notices to Review, Lower Court Appeals and Judicial Review Applications will be the first Wednesday of each sitting rather than the first Monday with effect from 28 March 2022. The timeslots will remain the same, namely 9.30am for Launceston matters, 10am for Hobart matters and 10.30am for Burnie matters. The Justices (Review) Rules 2004 r 6(1) will be amended so that Wednesdays will be permitted return dates.
- in accordance with the existing arrangement, the last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each month will be reserved for circuit visits to Launceston and Burnie with the result that no miscellaneous civil lists will be allocated for these days.

Court room 3 in Hobart will be reserved for use by judges every Monday and Tuesday.

This Circular replaces Circular 3/2005.

J A Connolly
REGISTRAR