

SUPREME COURT OF TASMANIA
PRACTICE DIRECTION

No 4 of 2022

24 August 2022

APPEALS AND REVIEWS (MISCELLANEOUS) – WRITTEN OUTLINES OF CONTENTIONS

The following Practice Direction is published by direction of the Chief Justice, the Honourable Justice A M Blow AO.

This Practice Direction replaces Practice Direction 4 of 2017. The time limits for lodging and serving written submissions have not been changed.

- 1 This Practice Direction applies to the following proceedings:
 - appeals from inferior courts (Part 27, Division 2 of the Supreme Court Rules 2000);
 - appeals from statutory tribunals (Part 27, Division 4 of the Supreme Court Rules 2000);
 - proceedings under the Judicial Review Act 2000 (Part 32, Division 1A of the Supreme Court Rules 2000);
 - appeals from the associate judge to a judge pursuant to the Supreme Court Civil Procedure Act 1932, s191B(2)(a); and
 - notices to review under the Justices Act 1959.
- 2 In proceedings to which this Practice Direction applies, unless otherwise ordered:
 - (1) The appellant or applicant must file and serve a written outline of each of its contentions of fact and law not later than 10 clear business days before the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal or matter.
 - (2) The respondent must file and serve a written outline of each of its contentions of fact and law within 4 business days of service of the appellant's outline.
 - (3) Each party to the appeal is not to advance any contention of fact or law which is not set out in the written outline of that party, without the leave of the Court.
- 3 The content of each party's written outline must comply with the requirements of Practice Direction 3 of 2022 with such modifications as are necessary in the circumstances of the particular case.
- 4 Departure from the above timetables requires the permission of the Chief Justice or the judge before whom the appeal is listed.
